Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Franklin College of Arts and Sciences
Office of Inclusion and Diversity Leadership

2018-19 AWARDS

Innovation in the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum

All teaching faculty (any rank) are invited to submit applications for the, "Innovation in the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum" grants. The goal of these awards is to support and encourage faculty to develop new courses that would be appropriate for the college's multicultural curriculum or to significantly revise existing courses in order to be included in the multicultural curriculum. These awards can also be used to engage in diversity innovation in the graduate curriculum as well. Two awards are available per academic year; $2500 will be awarded for each. In order to apply for these awards please submit the following:

- Name
- Department
- Discipline
- Proposed/Revised Course Title
- Proposed/Revised Course Description
- Proposed/Revised Syllabus
- Narrative on how the course will address the goals of the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum
- Applications due by 5:00 pm on Friday, September 28, 2018
- Applications, along with a very brief letter of support from your unit head/director, should be emailed to fcaslead@uga.edu