DATE OF APPOINTMENT August 2016

RANK AND SALARY Full-time lecturer, renewable yearly. Salary commensurate with credentials, experience, and reputation.

QUALIFICATIONS DMA or equivalent professional experience in jazz performance. Applicants must show demonstrated excellence in teaching and performance, and a desire to contribute to a dynamic, holistic music program located in a city known for its music and arts culture.

RESPONSIBILITIES
- Lead the UGA Jazz Bands, teach improvisation courses, coach jazz combos, and direct other courses depending on background and abilities.
- Other duties as assigned

TO APPLY Applications will be reviewed beginning January 6, 2016, until the position is filled. Submit a cover letter, vita, and academic transcript (of latest degree) in PDF format to http://facultyjobs.uga.edu/postings/507. Candidate should provide contact information for three references, which will be contacted by the School of Music for letters of recommendation as part of the application process. Please do not send recordings at this time. Candidates moving forward in the search will be asked to provide personal performance recordings and video of the candidate leading a jazz band rehearsal. Application questions can be directed to:

  David Zerkel, Search Committee Chair
dzerkel@uga.edu
  Phone 706-542-3737
  Fax: 706-542-2773

The University of Georgia is the first state-chartered university in America. It is a comprehensive land/sea grant university located in Athens, Georgia, 60 miles northeast of downtown Atlanta, the state capital (www.visitathensga.com, www.uga.edu). Georgia is well known for its quality of life in regard to both outdoor and urban activities (www.georgia.gov).

The Hugh Hodgson School of Music (www.music.uga.edu) is home to 500 students and a faculty of 60. The Hodgson School is part of the Performing and Visual Arts Complex that includes the five-story music building and the Performing Arts Center. Undergraduate programs include the Bachelor of Arts degree and Bachelor of Music degrees in composition, education, therapy, theory, and performance. Graduate offerings include MA, MM, MMEd, Education Specialist, Doctor of Education, DMA and PhD degrees, with majors in performance, conducting, composition, musicology/ethnomusicology, and education.

The Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, its many units, and the University of Georgia are committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty and students, and sustaining a work and learning environment that is inclusive. The University is an EEO/AA institution and all applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ethnicity or national origin, religion, age, genetic information, disability, or protected veteran status.