

UGA Franklin College-University of Liverpool Doctoral Student Short-Term International Research Fellowship

Application Deadline: Monday, December 12, 2016

The week-long Franklin College-University of Liverpool Doctoral Short-Term International Research Fellowship is open to Ph.D. students in any discipline in the College. Through this Fellowship program, students will have the opportunity to conduct research and develop an international network of research contacts. Fellows are expected to be on the Liverpool campus for one business week.

Expenses Covered

The Franklin College will cover international airfare between Atlanta and Liverpool as well as ground transportation to and from the airport in Atlanta. The University of Liverpool will provide overnight accommodation and cover meal expenses for the one-week duration of the stay.

Liverpool Faculty Mentor and UGA Approval

Students applying will need to have obtained the written endorsement of a faculty mentor at the University of Liverpool (<http://www.liv.ac.uk/>), indicating that the faculty member is willing to serve as a mentor for the time of the student's week-long visit.

Approval for the scheduled week-long visit must be obtained from both the student's major professor and the respective UGA department head. A UGA department may put forward up to two applications for this Fellowship each year.

Activities at Liverpool

While at Liverpool, students are expected to

- conduct research in consultation with the selected faculty mentor;
- offer a public lecture (or equivalent presentation) about their research;
- meet with faculty and graduate students to discuss longer-term research collaborations.

Application Materials

- Completed Cover Sheet
(<http://www.franklin.uga.edu/sites/default/files/Franklin-Liverpool%20Fellowship%20Cover%20Sheet-fill%26print.pdf>)
- 1-2 page description of the research project to be pursued at the University of Liverpool;
- Preliminary title of presentation and description of presentation format;
