The Department of Mathematics at the University of Georgia seeks to hire non-tenure track instructors beginning January 2019. Teaching duties are the equivalent of 4 three-hour courses per semester. The position may be renewable based upon annual performance evaluations, student demand, and instructional funding.

A M.A. or Ph.D. (preferable) in Mathematics or a related discipline and demonstrated teaching experience is required. Complete applications must be received by November 5, 2018. The University of Georgia is located in Athens, Georgia, which has a vibrant and engaging intercultural community, about 75 miles northeast of Atlanta.

To apply, please submit a cover letter, curriculum vita, a teaching statement, and three letters of recommendation through mathjobs.org. Applications must also be submitted through UGAjobs, http://www.ugajobsearch.com/postings/32535. Applications are incomplete and will not be considered until entered both on UGAJobs and MathJobs.

The Mathematics Department, the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, its many units, and the University of Georgia are committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty and students, and sustaining a work and learning environment that is inclusive. Women, minorities, and people with disabilities are encouraged to apply. The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ethnicity, age, genetic information, disability, gender identity, sexual orientation, or protected veteran status. Persons needing accommodations or assistance with the accessibility of materials related to this search are encouraged to contact Central HR (hrweb@uga.edu). Please do not contact the department or search committee with such requests.