Presiding Officer Bill Barstow’s Remarks
Bill Barstow reported on University Council’s discussion of the proposed Spanish minor elimination. Dr. Kaplan noted that the Department of Romance Languages decided to table the request to eliminate the Spanish minor. Dr. Barstow discussed the University Council Executive Committee’s report on a committee appointed by the Board of Regents to revise the University System of Georgia's core curriculum. Two preliminary models for a new core curriculum were created without feedback from students or faculty at UGA. The University Council Executive Committee protested, declaring that the action bypassed UGA faculty governance, further noting that UGA has already been in the process of creating its own core curriculum. Associate Dean Ruppersburg stated that UGA has been given permission to form its own core curriculum, and is exempted from the Board of Regents’ effort. General discussion ensued.
Dr. Barstow explained that the Franklin Faculty Senate bylaws revision committee has met for the first time, will continue to meet through the fall, and plans to have prepared a recommendation by December for the Senate's consideration. The committee consists of Drs. Rossbacher, Legette, Burd, Robinson, Barstow, and Associate Dean Ruppersburg.

Associate Dean Ruppersburg's Remarks
Dr. Ruppersburg took questions. Dr. Campbell asked if the Dean's office had received any news on legislation affecting the ORP retirement system; Dr. Ruppersburg said he had heard no news.
