Franklin College Diversity Leadership Development Program

The Franklin faculty is encouraged to engage in activities that will further develop their multicultural competence and skills and to contribute to the college's diversity programs and initiatives. Therefore, the college is proud to offer the Franklin College Diversity Leadership Development Program. These awards can be used to support a variety of activities designed to support the climate for diversity and inclusion in the college. For example,

- To travel and participate in a discipline-specific diversity leadership workshop, such as the American Psychological Association's Women Leadership Development pre-conference program.
- Develop a proposal for a grant that would help to train and recruit underrepresented students to a Franklin Unit
- Collaborate with a minority serving institution in order to promote discipline related partnerships in order to enhance training and service to underrepresented students

This year the college expects to make one (1) $3,000 award. In order to submit a proposal for the Diversity Leadership Development Program, please submit the following:

- Name
- Department
- Discipline
- One-two page narrative of proposed project or activity and expected impact on diversity in the home unit and the Franklin College
- Estimated budget and justification
- Proposals due by 5:00 pm on Tuesday, June 1, 2021
- Proposals should be emailed to Sherry Gray at swgray@uga.edu
