2023-24 AWARDS

Innovation in the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum

The intent of the award is to redesign/design a course during Spring 2023 and offer the course during the 2023-24 academic year

All teaching faculty (any rank) are invited to submit applications for the, “Innovation in the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum” grants. The goal of these awards is to support and encourage faculty to develop new courses that would be appropriate for the college’s multicultural curriculum (<https://osas.franklin.uga.edu/franklin-college-multicultural-requirement>) or to significantly revise existing courses in order to be included in the multicultural curriculum. These awards can also be used to engage in diversity innovation in the graduate curriculum as well. Three awards are available per academic year; $2000 will be awarded for each. In order to apply for these awards please submit the following:

- Name
- Department
- Discipline
- Proposed/Revised Course Title
- Proposed/Revised Course Description
- Proposed/Revised Syllabus
- Narrative on how the course will address the goals of the Franklin Multicultural Curriculum
- Applications due by 5:00 pm on Wednesday, November 16, 2022
- Applications, along with a brief letter of support from your unit head/director, committing to inclusion of the course during the 2023-2024 academic year and at least once a year in the ensuing two academic years should be emailed to April Brown at albrown@uga.edu
