

A motion to request at least two in-person meetings each semester:

Be it resolved, the Franklin College Faculty Senate asks that Dean Stenport, in consultation with the Executive Committee, schedule at least two in-person meetings during each spring and fall semester, provided that favorable conditions permit such meetings. Favorable conditions are expected to include in-person teaching on the Athens campus and compatibility with Dean Stenport's travel schedule.